Privacy & Cookies policy

- (p) verify compliance with the terms and conditions governing the use of our website (including monitoring private messages sent through our website private messaging service).
- 3.3 If you submit personal information for publication on our website, we will publish and otherwise use that information in accordance with the licence you grant to us.
- 3.4 Your privacy settings can be used to limit the publication of your information on our website, and can be adjusted using privacy controls on the website.
- 3.5 All our website financial transactions are handled through our payment services provider, Stripe Inc (First Data or World Pay). You can review privacy policies <https://stripe.com/gb/privacy>. <https://online.worldpay.com/terms/privacy>. We will share information with our payment services providers only to the extent necessary for the purposes of processing payments you make via our website, refunding such payments and dealing with complaints and queries relating to such payments and refunds.
- 3.6 We will not, without your express consent, supply your personal information to any third party for the purpose of their or any other third party's direct marketing.

4. Disclosing personal information

- 4.1 We may disclose your personal information to any of our employees, officers, insurers, professional advisers, agents, suppliers or subcontractors insofar as reasonably necessary for the purposes set out in this policy.
- 4.2 We may disclose your personal information to any member of our group of companies (this means our subsidiaries, our ultimate holding company and all its subsidiaries) insofar as reasonably necessary for the purposes set out in this policy.
- 4.3 We may disclose your personal information:
 - (a) to the extent that we are required to do so by law;
 - (b) in connection with any ongoing or prospective legal proceedings;
 - (c) in order to establish, exercise or defend our legal rights (including providing information to others for the purposes of fraud prevention and reducing credit risk);
 - (d) to the purchaser (or prospective purchaser) of any business or asset that we are (or are contemplating) selling; and
 - (e) to any person who we reasonably believe may apply to a court or other competent authority for disclosure of that personal information where, in our reasonable opinion, such court or authority would be reasonably likely to order disclosure of that personal information.
- 4.4 Except as provided in this policy, we will not provide your personal information to third parties.

Privacy & Cookies policy

5. International data transfers

- 5.1 Information that we collect may be stored and processed in and transferred between any of the countries in which we operate in order to enable us to use the information in accordance with this policy.
- 5.2 Information that we collect may be transferred to the following countries which do not have data protection laws equivalent to those in force in the European Economic Area: The United States of America, Russia, Japan, China and India.
- 5.3 Personal information that you publish on our website or submit for publication on our website may be available, via the internet, around the world. We cannot prevent the use or misuse of such information by others.
- 5.4 You expressly agree to the transfers of personal information described in this Section 5.

6. Retaining personal information

- 6.1 This Section sets out our data retention policies and procedure, which are designed to help ensure that we comply with our legal obligations in relation to the retention and deletion of personal information.
- 6.2 Personal information that we process for any purpose or purposes shall not be kept for longer than is necessary for that purpose or those purposes.
- 6.3 Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Section 6, we will retain documents (including electronic documents) containing personal data:
 - (a) to the extent that we are required to do so by law;
 - (b) if we believe that the documents may be relevant to any ongoing or prospective legal proceedings; and
 - (c) in order to establish, exercise or defend our legal rights (including providing information to others for the purposes of fraud prevention and reducing credit risk).

7. Security of personal information

- 7.1 We will take reasonable technical and organisational precautions to prevent the loss, misuse or alteration of your personal information.
- 7.2 We will store all the personal information you provide on our secure (password and firewall-protected/protection through a third party) servers.
- 7.3 All electronic financial transactions entered into through our website will be protected by encryption technology where possible.
- 7.4 You acknowledge that the transmission of information over the internet is inherently insecure, and we cannot guarantee the security of data sent over the internet.

Privacy & Cookies policy

7.5 You are responsible for keeping the password you use for accessing our website confidential; we will never ask you for your password (except when you log in to our website).

7.6 If we transfer the website to another business the information that you supply to us through our enquiry forms, we will do so securely. We keep such transfers secure by encrypting transferred data.

8. Amendments

8.1 We may update this policy from time to time by publishing a new version on our website.

8.2 You should check this page occasionally to ensure you are happy with any changes to this policy.

8.3 We may notify you of changes to this policy by email or through the private messaging system via our website.

9. Your rights

9.1 You may instruct us to provide you with any personal information we hold about you; provision of such information will be subject to:

- (a) the payment of a fee (currently fixed at £25); and
- (b) the supply of appropriate evidence of your identity (for this purpose, we will usually accept a photocopy of your passport certified by a solicitor or bank plus an original copy of a utility bill showing your current address).

9.2 We may withhold personal information that you request to the extent permitted by law.

9.3 You may instruct us at any time not to process your personal information for marketing purposes.

9.4 In practice, you will usually either expressly agree in advance to our use of your personal information for marketing purposes, or we will provide you with an opportunity to opt out of the use of your personal information for marketing purposes.

10. Third party websites

10.1 Our website includes hyperlinks to and details of, third party websites.

10.2 We have no control over, and are not responsible for, the privacy policies and practices of third parties.

11. Updating information

11.1 Please let us know if the personal information that we hold about you needs to be corrected or updated.

Privacy & Cookies policy

12. About cookies

- 12.1 A cookie is a file containing an identifier (a unique set of letters and numbers) that is sent by a web server to a web browser and is stored by the browser. The identifier is then sent back to the server each time the browser requests a page from the server.
- 12.2 Cookies may be either "persistent" cookies or "session" cookies: a persistent cookie will be stored by a web browser and will remain valid until its set expiry date, unless deleted by the user before the expiry date; a session cookie, on the other hand, will expire at the end of the user session, when the web browser is closed.
- 12.3 Cookies do not typically contain any information that personally identifies a user, but personal information that we store about you may be linked to the information stored in and obtained from cookies.
- 12.4 Cookies can be used by web servers to identify and track users as they navigate different pages on a website and identify users returning to a website.

13. Our cookies

- 13.1 We use both session and persistent cookies on our website.
- 13.2 The names of the cookies that we use on our website, and the purposes for which they are used, may vary from time to time, but include the following:
 - (a) to recognise a computer when a user visits the website;
 - (b) to track users as they navigate the website;
 - (c) to enable the use of a shopping cart on the website;
 - (d) to improve the website's usability;
 - (e) to analyse the use of the website;
 - (f) to administer the website;
 - (g) to prevent fraud and improve the security of the website;
 - (h) to personalise the website for each user; and
 - (i) to target advertisements which may be of particular interest to specific users.

14. Analytics cookies

- 14.1 We use Google Analytics to analyse the use of our website.
- 14.2 Our analytics service provider generates statistical and other information about website use by means of cookies.
- 14.3 The analytics cookies used by our website have the following names: `__ga`, `__gat`, `__utma`, `__utmt`, `__utmb`, `__utmc`, `__utmz` and `__utmv`.

Privacy & Cookies policy

14.4 The information generated relating to our website is used to create reports about the use of our website.

14.5 Our analytics service provider's privacy policy is available at: <http://www.google.com/policies/privacy/>.

15. Third party cookies

15.1 Our website also uses third party cookies.

15.2 We publish Google AdSense advertisements on our website. To determine your interests, Google will track your behaviour on our website and on other websites across the web using the DoubleClick cookie. This behaviour tracking allows Google to tailor the advertisements you see on other websites to reflect your interests (we do not publish interest-based advertisements on this website).]

You can view, delete or add interest categories associated with your browser by visiting: <http://www.google.com/settings/ads/>. You can also opt out of the AdSense partner network cookie using those settings or using the NAI's (Network Advertising Initiative's) multi-cookie opt-out mechanism at: <http://www.networkadvertising.org/choices/>.

However, these opt-out mechanisms themselves use cookies, and if you clear the cookies from your browser your opt-out will not be maintained. To ensure that an opt-out is maintained in respect of a particular browser, you may wish to consider using the Google browser plug-in available at: <https://www.google.com/settings/ads/plugin>.

16. Blocking cookies

16.1 Most browsers allow you to refuse to accept cookies; for example:

- (a) in Internet Explorer you can block cookies using the cookie handling override settings available by clicking "Tools", "Internet Options", "Privacy" and then "Advanced";
- (b) in Firefox you can block all cookies by clicking "Tools", "Options", "Privacy", selecting "Use custom settings for history" from the drop-down menu, and unticking "Accept cookies from sites"; and
- (c) in Chrome, you can block all cookies by accessing the "Customise and control" menu, and clicking "Settings", "Show advanced settings" and "Content settings", and then selecting "Block sites from setting any data" under the "Cookies" heading.

16.2 Blocking all cookies will have a negative impact upon the usability of many websites.

16.3 If you block cookies, you may not be able to use all the features on our website and may have difficulty gaining access to your personal account and subscriptions.

17. Deleting cookies

- 17.1 You can delete cookies already stored on your computer; for example:
- (a) in Internet Explorer, you must manually delete cookie files (you can find instructions for doing so at <https://support.microsoft.com/en-gb/help/17442/windows-internet-explorer-delete-manage-cookies>);
 - (b) in Firefox, you can delete cookies by clicking "Tools", "Options" and "Privacy", then selecting "Use custom settings for history" from the drop-down menu, clicking "Show Cookies", and then clicking "Remove All Cookies"; and
 - (c) in Chrome, you can delete all cookies by accessing the "Customise and control" menu, and clicking "Settings", "Show advanced settings" and "Clear browsing data", and then selecting "Cookies and other site and plug-in data" before clicking "Clear browsing data".
- 17.2 Deleting cookies will have a negative impact on the usability of many websites, including this website.

18. Cookie preferences

- 18.1 You cannot currently manage your preferences relating to the use of cookies on our websites.
